

THE SAM NUNN SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

DOCTORATE IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: COURSEWORK CHECKLIST

EFFECTIVE FALL 2010

CORE

Course:	Title:
INTA 6003	Empirical Research Methods (3)	<input type="checkbox"/>
INTA 6102	International Relations Theory (3)	<input type="checkbox"/>
INTA 8000	Seminar in Science, Technology, and International Affairs I (3)	<input type="checkbox"/>
INTA 8001	Seminar in Science, Technology, and International Affairs II (3)	<input type="checkbox"/>
INTA 8010	IAST PhD Pro-seminar (1)	<input type="checkbox"/>

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS TRACK ELECTIVES

Students must choose 2 tracks of focus AND their corresponding electives.

International Affairs & Security	Globalization & Development	Comparative & Regional Studies	Self-Designed
<input type="checkbox"/> INTA 6103 (3)	<input type="checkbox"/> INTA 6302 (3)	<input type="checkbox"/> INTA 6202 (3)	_____ (3)
_____ (3)	_____ (3)	_____ (3)	_____ (3)
_____ (3)	_____ (3)	_____ (3)	_____ (3)

MINOR CONCENTRATION: _____

Course:	Title:
_____ (3)	_____
_____ (3)	_____
_____ (3)	_____

See handbook for rules and regulations concerning minors.

LANGUAGE/ADVANCED METHODS

Students must complete 6 semesters worth of a foreign language OR 4 semesters worth of a foreign language and 2 semesters worth of advanced methods.

4 semesters worth or the equivalent of a foreign language	<input type="checkbox"/>
2 additional semesters of the same foreign language	<input type="checkbox"/>	OR	2 semesters worth of advanced methods <input type="checkbox"/>
Translation exercise	<input type="checkbox"/>

Notes: Two 3000 or 4000-level courses may be used towards the degree if taken for a letter grade. One 6000-level elective may be taken pass/fail and still count towards the degree. Electives are taken throughout the program. Students must achieve a grade point average of at least 3.0 to graduate, and no course below grade C will count toward graduation.